1. An Egyptian commercial mission headed by Wakhba Pasha is expected to arrive in Rome in the near future to conclude negotiations which have been in progress in Cairo for some time.
2. It is reported, although the report is unconfirmed, that the Egyptians arranged for the transfer of negotiations to Rome despite opposition to the plan on the part of Giovanni De Astis, Italian representative in Cairo who was responsible for the creation of the commission.
3. Augusto Spechel will reportedly leave Rome shortly to reopen the Italian Consulate in Alexandria.
